

Location

Jumeirah Lowndes Hotel is situated in the heart of the historic village of Belgravia and just yards away from Knightsbridge, one of London's most fashionable districts renowned for its designer boutiques and luxury department stores. Jumeirah Lowndes Hotel is a sister property to Jumeirah Carlton Tower, located just across the road.

Jumeirah Lowndes Hotel is located 15km from Heathrow Airport and is well served by all central London transport facilities.

History

The Lowndes Hotel was built in 1969 by the Berkeley Brothers and has been owned by Thistle Hotels, Mount Charlotte and Hyatt before joining Jumeirah. In December, 2001, Jumeirah assumed management of The Lowndes Hotel and re-branded the hotel 'Jumeirah Lowndes Hotel' on June 21st, 2005.

Structure and Design

Set against the backdrop of a leafy London square, Jumeirah Lowndes Hotel reopened its doors in late 2006, following a multimillion pound sterling renovation project.

With interiors by UK designers Hunt Hamilton Zuch, the Jumeirah Lowndes Hotel successfully incorporates city chic and intimate elegance to attract local residents, tourists and industry professionals. All 87 rooms and suites underwent a complete refurbishment and are finished to the highest specifications as well as the hotel's restaurant and bar.

Guest Rooms and Suites

Jumeirah Lowndes Hotel features 87 luxurious bedrooms, including 14 private suites; each taking their inspiration from nature's changing seasons.

The rooms and suites, ranging from 145 to 517 square feet in size, have been finished with rich textures radiating intimacy and players, high speed Internet access and an iPod dock/clock radio.

Two of the four one-bedroom Executive Suites on the exclusive new sixth floor of the hotel feature balconies overlooking leafy Belgravia and are sought-after retreats for those looking for space and comfort.

The choice of rooms and suites on offer include:

- 42 Guest Rooms
- 21 Deluxe Rooms
- 10 Executive Rooms with Balcony
- 9 Junior Suites
- 4 Executive Suites
- 1 Luxury Suites

Restaurants and Bars

Mimosa Bar & Restaurant

The signature restaurant of the hotel, Mimosa Bar & Restaurant, features a brand new bistro-style concept which pays homage to the Mediterranean in both décor and food selection. Mimosa is a relaxed and vibrant venue and features a terrace overlooking Lowndes Square, ideal for al fresco dining on balmy summer nights in London. The menu offers modern European cuisine complemented by contemporary and creative choices from Executive Chef Martin Gabler, designed to tempt even the most refined taste buds.

Jumeirah Carlton Towers

Jumeirah Lowndes Hotel guests can also enjoy the dining facilities at sister property, Jumeirah Carlton Tower. Options include:

- The Rib Room & Bar (Modern British)
- Chinoiserie (Afternoon teas, light refreshments, all-day dining)
- The Club Room (Healthy salads, snacks and smoothies)
- GILT Champagne Lounge (Decedent champagne bar)

Conference and Banqueting Facilities

An intimate and exclusive event room is quietly located at the rear of the ground floor at the Jumeirah Lowndes Hotel. The décor is warm and contemporary, making it the ideal venue for private entertaining or board meetings of up to 18 people, or cocktail functions of up to 30 attendees.

For presentation purposes, the room is equipped with a 61 inch plasma screen, with DVD/VCR multi-region player, plus surround sound system and laptop connection. Wireless Internet is available within the room and there is also facility for a conference phone, fax or printer. LCD projector screens and other conference equipment are available on request.

Health Club and Spa

Guests staying at Jumeirah Lowndes Hotel can enjoy complimentary access to The Peak Health Club & Spa, at sister property, Jumeirah Carlton Tower situated just across the road.

The Peak Health Club & Spa provides a fully equipped fitness facility featuring state-of-the-art equipment and an aerobics studio with spectacular views over the rooftops of London. Open to members and guests, the health club features a 20 metre indoor, heated, stainless steel swimming pool including whirlpool, sauna and steam facilities, set alongside a tropical Water Garden.
