Editorial Inspiration

1) The Art Experience
Jumeirah Port Soller Hotel and Spa has teamed up with local talent to further reinforce its “Culturally Connected” tagline. The Art Experience comprises 400 artworks specifically curated from 12 local artists reflecting the Mediterranean landscape. The collection includes paintings, watercolours, collages, photographs, sculpted stones, ceramics, glasswork and even ropes.

2) A Mallorcan Sanctuary experience to Protect the Black Vultures
Conservation has long been part of Jumeirah Group’s corporate social responsibility strategy. This Unique Experience is the perfect opportunity to combine the relaxation and tranquility of the Tramuntana mountains with a visit to a 16th century farmhouse where time stands still. Guests who want to participate have to make a donation towards the Black Vultures Conservation Foundation, contributing to the preservation of this endangered species.

3) Follow the Wheels of David Millar

Mallorca has long been regarded as a road cyclist’s paradise. Jumeirah Port Soller Hotel & Spa has worked with ex-pro David Millar over the past 12 months to develop the facilities we offer to our cycling guests. David’s guidance has been invaluable in ensuring that our guests who enjoy cycling can discover the surrounding mountainous landscape, and know that them and their bikes will be accommodated and well looked after.

From personalised tried and tested routes endorsed by David, to secure bike storage and rental partners, we have got everything it takes to make sure you get the very best out of your Mallorcan cycling experience.

Location
Crowning a cliff overlooking the fishing village of Port Sóller and surrounded by the Tramuntana Mountain range, recently declared a UNESCO Heritage site, the hotel gives the illusion of floating between sky and sea. The hotel is 35 kms away from Palma International Airport and is reached in just over 30 minutes by car; transfer cars can be arranged.

The charming village of Port de Sóller is just a brisk walk away, and a frequent shuttle bus service to the village and beaches is also available from the hotel.

To reach the bustling and truly authentic town of Sóller, just 3kms inland, it’s best to take the delightful century old, wood panelled tram that in thirty minutes, weaves a magical route from the coast, through lush countryside, olive and orange groves, to the heart of the town, stopping at various key places en route.

Palma de Mallorca, the island’s capital, can also be reached by the scenic one-hour long train ride direct from Sóller train station.

Structure & Design
The hotel has 121 rooms spread across 11 understated and low-rise buildings covering 18,000 sq metres, all connected by garden walks and internal passageways surrounded by natural rock and vegetation native to the island, providing a “sense of place” everywhere one looks.

The architecture has taken into account the natural surroundings resulting in an integrated building that appears to blend into the mountain. All flat roofs throughout the property are planted with vegetation and tall grasses in order to provide subtle movement on windy days and to allow the buildings to blend with the natural landscape and forests around them.

Restaurants and Bars

Cap Roig Restaurant

Cap Roig, named after a delicious local fish known for its bright red colour and intense flavour, is Jumeirah’s exclusive Mediterranean restaurant and enjoys a unique cliff-front location offering dramatic sea views over the Mediterranean. During the day it offers a selection of Mediterranean inspired dishes in a comfortable and family-friendly al fresco atmosphere. Paella and traditional local rice dishes are served too, which makes Cap Roig the perfect venue for those seeking out local delicacies. At night treat yourself with casual dining and enjoy delicious fresh fish caught daily and seafood dishes; a simple yet sophisticated option. Or opt for the chef’s five-course tasting menu designed to enhance all the local flavors. Discover a broad and deep selection of Spanish and international wines.

Es Fanals Restaurant

Walk along a path carved through pines and olive trees and discover this magnificent restaurant named after the traditional glass lanterns used by the local fishermen. Es Fanals provides a unique atmosphere that suits every occasion. It offers a well-selected variety of signature tapas prepared live in an open kitchen and designed to guarantee big local flavours, all served by the chefs themselves. Enjoy the unique experience provided by “la barra del chef” a set menu served directly by our chefs. The dramatic views over the sea provided from its fantastic location, at the highest point of the hotel, and a crisp and Mediterranean décor, with the clever use of lighting and colours, perfectly combine to create backdrop of a magnificent local yet elegant homely atmosphere.

Sunset Sushi Lounge

Exuding elegance and style, Sunset Sushi Lounge has been conceived for your enjoyment. Start your evening with friends at Sunset and sample creative and traditional sushi prepared by our sushi man together with some of the most representative Asian nibbles that will definitely cater to every mood. Step out onto the covered outdoor terrace and enjoy dramatic, 180-degree views of the Mediterranean Sea, the historic Port de Sóller and the world heritage Tramuntana Mountain Range whilst you soak up the last of the sun’s rays. Enjoy your favourite signature cocktail and discover the ever-changing colour views of breathtaking sunsets that can be experienced from this magnificent vantage point.

Sa Talaia Pool Bar

Enjoy casual light snacks made from locally sourced ingredients after a refreshing dip in the pool. Sit at the poolside bar and choose from a wide range of cocktails or local wines whilst you relish a relaxed day inspiring sunset. You will definitely enjoy spending time with your family or friends at Sa Talaia Pool Bar.

Infinity Pool Bar
The Infinity Pool Bar is a gorgeous venue where the blues of the pool, the sea and the sky all blend seamlessly together. Enjoy a laid-back ambience, sunbathe under the sun and relax whilst you enjoy a delicious drink. Choose from a range of tantalising cocktails and enjoy a wide range of comfort food options served in a modern Bento Box. Take time to unwind, relish the dramatic panoramic views over the Mediterranean Sea and gaze across the waters of our infinity pool. A mesmerising spot surrounded by idyllic scenery that will definitely delight you.

The Tramuntana
With sweeping views of the Mediterranean Sea and Port de Sóller, this spacious terrace is the perfect place to enjoy some tranquillity. Bask in the sun from the comfort of one of our sunbeds or unwind beneath the cooling shade of a Bali Bed and quench your thirst with a refreshing cocktail or savour a delicious light snack from our wide selection at the Infinity Pool Bar. The soothing white décor of The Tramuntana coupled with blue skies and greenery will assure the ultimate relaxation experience.

Outdoor Spaces & Cultural connection
Uninterrupted views of the Mediterranean and the protected pine forests surrounding the property can be found from many vantage points in the grounds and gardens, as well as at the three swimming pools (two of them heated all year round). These open spaces and terraces with magnificent views are perfect for outdoor relaxation, evening cocktails and al fresco dining.

The woods around beyond the hotel offers a wealth of outdoor activities, mostly connected to the stunning mountains which are renowned for trekking, hiking, mountain biking and climbing. Discovering the island in a classic vintage car is a great option for experience seekers. Private yachts are available to hire for day excursions in the turquoise waters of the Mediterranean, to visit beaches and hidden coves, as well as for fishing, snorkelling and scuba diving. The islands of Menorca and Ibiza are also within short sailing distance.

Talise Spa
